Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, We have developed an age of advanced technology; and,

WHEREAS, Clear minds are required to make complex decisions, controlled hands to operate complex machines, courageous programs to right complex inequities and concerned vision to care for tomorrow's world; and,

WHEREAS, Clarity, control, courage, and concern are diminished by the use of alcohol, other drugs, and tobacco; and,

WHEREAS, The use of these substances has led to the destruction of advanced societies and has done much to harm our own through traffic fatalities, crime, absenteeism, broken relationships, and family abuse; and,

WHEREAS, The majority of our youth want to count for good in this complex world;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 19-25, 1987, as

YOUTH TEMPERANCE EDUCATION WEEK

in South Dakota, and I encourage all civic, service, and religious groups to join in the promotion of the week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
